

Report of Dupuytren Evaluation

PATIENT: Date:

INITIAL MEASUREMENTS

FINDINGS Joint angles and Spans
Unmeasured: // Cord ⊗ Nodule ◇ Skin Involvement + Scar ⋮ Skin graft ⊕ Doppler Spiral Cord
Measured: Width/Diameter (e.g. 8 mm): ⊠ Cord ⊗ Nodule ◇ Skin Involvement

Right	Left
Palmaris Longus <input type="checkbox"/> Present <input type="checkbox"/> Absent	Palmaris Longus <input type="checkbox"/> Present <input type="checkbox"/> Absent
Doppler <input type="checkbox"/> No exam <input type="checkbox"/> Normal <input type="checkbox"/> Inaudible <input type="checkbox"/> Spiral	Doppler <input type="checkbox"/> No exam <input type="checkbox"/> Normal <input type="checkbox"/> Inaudible <input type="checkbox"/> Spiral
Knuckle Pads: T <input type="checkbox"/> I <input type="checkbox"/> M <input type="checkbox"/> R <input type="checkbox"/> S <input type="checkbox"/>	Knuckle Pads: T <input type="checkbox"/> I <input type="checkbox"/> M <input type="checkbox"/> R <input type="checkbox"/> S <input type="checkbox"/>

- Dupuytren's Disease was reviewed in detail with the patient, including discussion of:
- Definition of Dupuytren's Disease
 - Risk factors and natural history
 - Noninvasive treatment options
 - Open surgery - possible complications, short and long term care and expectations
 - Percutaneous fasciotomy - possible complications, short and long term care and expectations

Physician, Date